**Forgotten Classics from Libraries of Hope*

**Tales of Olden Days and History Sings are out of print, but can often be found from Used Books Stores and Retailers.*

**The Forgotten Classics includes fables and myths that originated in Ancient cultures. While these stories may be fictional, they provide insight into the culture and teach valuable moral lessons and so we include them in our list of history stories.*

Free audio podcasts of Stories of the World are also available at MyFreedomFrontier.org <http://www.myfreedomfrontier.org/resource-library/category/story-of-the-world-for-kids>

Stories of the Middle Ages may be taught year after year between January and Mid-March. This allows all family members to participate in History Story time regardless of age. Simply record stories read each year to avoid unnecessary duplication from year to year.

The stories are organized by the following anchor dates:

Anchor Date	People and Events
AD 33	Death of Jesus Christ and the Apostles
AD 133	Emperor Constantine and the Spread of Christianity
